Cardinal Samuel Stritch Will Dedicate St. Peter School on October 16

Was Present at St. Patrick's Anniversary Service Last Sunday

The new St. Peter's parochial school will be dedicated in a special service at which His Eminence, Samuel Cardinal Stritch, archbishop of Chicago, will preside at 4 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 16.

The Rev. Francis M. Flaherty, pastor of the church, expects to have greater details of plans later but has definitely established the date of the event and arranged for the presence of the church dignitary.

Cardinal Stritch presided and preached the sermon last Sunday in commemorating the 100th anniversary of formation of the parish at Wadsworth.

Only a small portion of the large crowd gathering in Wadsworth Sunday for the celebration could get in to the church but many from the Antioch Parish were there.

Long before the Cardinal's arrival people lined the main highway of the village. School girls wore green tams and the school boys wore green ties.

In solemn procession Cardinal Stritch, preceded by his guard of honor and Lake county and Chicago clergymen walked into the rectory of the church. As he mounted the steps of St. Patrick's an air salute was given in his honor by fliers from O'Hara field, Chicago.

The Rev. Leo A. Devitt, pastor arranged to have elderly members of the parish occupy preferred seats.

Palms Restaurant Saved From Loss by Fire When Toaster Short Circuits

The loss of two electric toasters and damage to a shelf, floor and wall resulted in a fire at The Palms, small restaurant, at the west edge of the village on Rte. 173 Tuesday evening.

Clarence Shultis, secretary of the fire department, said the fire probably started in one of the toasters through a short circuit.

The restaurant was closed at the time, but Edward Sorensen of a nearby tavern saw smoke coming from the building and with the aid of others investigated and turned in the alarm.

Douglas Palm, owner of the place, said it would cost him several hundred dollars to replace the equipment, repair the floor and redecorate. The restaurant is operating as usual, however.

You can sleep an hour longer Sunday.

Clocks will be turned back to Central Standard time on that day in this area, while across the line in Wisconsin which never went to Daylight Savings time, there will be no change.

The rule calls for the change at 2 a. m. Sunday which works in the case of suburban trains to Chicago, but the average resident will make the change when he winds the clock before retiring Saturday night.

To the people in Wisconsin who have been inconvenienced in their trading in Antioch because of the difference in time the change will be welcomed.

Antioch High to Open Season Tomorrow Night Against Barrington High

October 21 Set as Date for Annual Homecoming; Palatine Here

The Antioch High school football team will meet its toughest assignment of the year tomorrow evening when it meets Barrington here under the lights in the conference opener.

The game will start at 8 o'clock instead of 7:30 as originally planned. The Sequoias are anything but ready for tomorrow's game.

To top it off Don Appanaitas received a shoulder injury that will keep him out of play for the next three weeks and Coach Kruzan must seek a new left half.

The probable lineup at the start will be Poulos, fullback; Haviland, quarterback; Wiczorek, right halfback; Wilton or Radke, left halfback; Cardiff and Wolff, guards; Gutowski, Nelson or Cosgrove, tackles; Buchta and Stillson, ends; Crichton, center.

Coach Kruzan said that he might make some last minute changes because of the threat of substitutes to outplay the regulars.

October 21 has been set as the date for the annual Homecoming. Antioch will play Palatine here on that date. Only one other home game is scheduled.

Ministers Ask Sheriff, State's Attorney to Ban Lake County Gambling

Elimination of gambling from Lake county was asked of Sheriff Stanley Christian by a group of ministers who conferred with him last Thursday afternoon at the sheriff's office.

The action of the ministers was said to have been aroused when slot machines were placed in public places frequented by children who were allowed to play.

Th statement issued by the ministers following first reports of the meeting was:

"We believe that the slot machines and other forms of gambling in Lake County tend to undermine the moral fiber of the communities in which we live.

"We believe that it is not to the credit of any community to allow gambling, in direct violation of the laws of the state, thus undermining the very foundation of our democracy. Winking at the law, openly violating it and encouraging others to do so is one of the very sure ways of destroying a society.

"Furthermore, while deploring the presence of slot machines in places frequented by young people, we believe that their presence anywhere is a detriment to the community.

"We deplore the tendency of church and civic groups to ask special favors of law enforcement officials in the operation of slot machines and game of chance.

"Recognizing that education is a long-time approach which must be pursued, we nevertheless believe that the immediate situation must be faced.

"Therefore, we call upon the Sheriff and the State's Attorney to keep their oath as duly elected law enforcement officials. We believe that this involves elimination of gambling throughout Lake County.

CALL OF THE WILD

Taxes in July and August More Than Was Expected

State taxes which are used for the general government activities of Illinois yielded slightly more than expected during July and August, according to a report to the state budgetary commission by George W. Mitchell, state director of finance.

Mitchell pointed out that appropriations for the next two years are to be paid for not only by tax receipts but by a treasury surplus of 106 million dollars on hand at the beginning of the biennium and by the use of 39 million dollars of funds appropriated but not spent, and by transfers from other funds estimated at 7 million dollars.

He added that if all appropriations for the current biennium are expended, it will be necessary to cut state spending, or find more state revenue, or both, to the extent of between 100 million and 200 million dollars for the two years beginning July 1, 1951.

The state administration will save money in all feasible ways, and is aiming to hold the spending of all agencies under the direct supervision of Governor Adlai E. Stevenson to a level 10 per cent under appropriations approved by the 66th General Assembly, Mitchell said.

Antioch Special Polio Fund Reaches $542; Drive Ended Saturday

One Death in Antioch and 73 Cases of Disease in Lake County

Although some contributions are yet to be received the special polio emergency drive for Antioch was brought to a close Saturday with gifts totaling $542.

This amount is nearly two-thirds the total given by the community in the regular March of Dimes drive and is considered a good response, Edward Gresens, chairman, said.

The schools have given $315.28 with St. Peter's which just started, yet to take its collection.

The Antioch grade school gave $84.86, the high school $72.62, and six outlying schools $7.60.

The rest of the money came through the containers placed in various business houses.

The nation is trying to raise $14,500,000 to take care of the unusually large number of cases this year.

Antioch had one death last week-end from polio, and the number of cases for the county now stands at 73, a record.

Burglar at Antioch Mill Was Only 9-year-old Boy

There was a mystery over the disappearance of small change left in a money drawer at the Antioch Mill until the manager, Geo. Wagner, nailed the windows down and then it was discovered that he had trapped a nine-year-old boy who secreted himself among some sacks before the mill closed. On at least three occasions the boy took nickels and pennies from the drawer and then left through a door or window.

After the first robbery, Wagner locked the windows and doors, but still the money disappeared and a window was open, showing the thief operated from the inside.

The night he nailed the windows down, Wagner returned a short time after closing and found the blinds closed which he had left open. The doors and windows were still shut, so he began a search and found the youngster perched high on a pile of sacks. He was turned over to the parent for discipline.

Village Trustees Pick Cunningham As Acting Mayor

Special Election Necessary To Choose Successor To Bartlett

Murrill Cunningham was chosen acting president of the village board at a special meeting of the trustees Friday night, filling the vacancy caused by the death of George B. Bartlett last week.

Cunningham, one of the younger members of the board and heading the streets and lighting committee, was chosen by his colleagues in a secret ballot in which he received three votes, Arthur Hawkins two, and Arthur Rosenfeldt, one.

In his position as acting mayor, Cunningham will serve until the wishes of the people are shown in a special election which must take place within the next six months.

The earliest an election can take place is 60 days because there must be an ordinance setting the date of the election with time enough for the candidates to file.

Cunningham said he did not know whether or not an effort will be made at the next meeting in October to prepare for the election.

Already there is speculation as to the possibilities of candidacies and Arthur Rosenfeldt, trustee, who was made mayor protem while Mayor Bartlett was absent in the last two years, has indicated he will become a candidate.

Aid To Recovery

Fire insurance is a mainstay of the economy. In thousands upon thousands of cases, it has meant the difference between solvency and ruin.

A recent issue of Forbes Magazine tells a typical story of how fire insurance serves the nation. Two years ago a New Jersey furniture company had a $1,000,000 fire which almost totally destroyed the plant. For a time there was doubt if the 100-year old company could survive the blow. However, some time before the firm had been sold a Use and Occupancy insurance policy. This coverage guaranteed that a high percentage of the profits normally earned by the company would keep coming in, and, in addition, it paid the salaries of key personnel.

With this income to count on, the company moved to temporary quarters and started to rebuild. It sent its salesmen out, and used newspaper and radio ads to let people know it was still in business and was going to stay there. This year, a concern which appeared to be doomed in 1947, will gross around $3,000,000, and give employment to a small army of people.

It is literally true that there is no risk too great or too small for fire insurance to cover. It will take care of a loss of a few dollars. And, at the other extreme, it will handle in stride a great disaster, such as the Texas City explosion. A fire insurance policy isn't exciting reading—but it represents an essential protection which has done much to make the development of the nation possible.

The Wage-Hour Problem

The status of proposed changes in the wage-hour law is uncertain. There is a wide difference of opinion in Congress both as to the figure at which the minimum wage should be set, and also on other very important provisions of the legislation.

The "retail exemption" falls into this second category. It has existed ever since the first fair labor standards act was passed. What it does is to give retailing certain exemptions from regulations which apply to business as a whole. And this is not, as might appear on first glance, an example of favoritism to one enterprise at the expense of others. It is based on the fact that retailing is a special kind of business with special problems.

For example, stores cannot generally operate on a 40-hour week. This is especially true in the smaller towns, where farmers and others must do their shopping on weekends and in the evening. If stores were forced to pay overtime after 40 hours, the burden would be a serious one, and it would be reflected in higher prices.

More important still, retailing offers unusual opportunity to part-time and unskilled workers. It gives young people and housewives a chance to earn a little money on the side. It gives others a chance to learn a skill and to increase their earning power. However, if the storekeeper were forced by law to pay a high minimum wage for the services of this kind of worker, he would cut as many jobs as possible. Marginal workers simply wouldn't earn their keep. And so the opportunity to get the experience they need, by starting in at the bottom, would be denied them.

A sound wage-hour law is a difficult and complex matter. A bad law would hurt those it is designed to aid.

Do You Want Your A&P Put Out Of Business?

Last Thursday in New York, the anti-trust lawyers from Washington filed a suit to put A&P out of business.

They asked the court to order us to get rid of most of our stores and also the manufacturing facilities which supply you with A&P coffee, Ann Page products, Jane Parker baked goods, and other quality items we produce.

This would mean higher food prices for you. It would mean less food on every dinner table and fewer dollars in every pay envelope.

It would mean the end of A&P as you know it.

This poses a basic question for the American people: Do they want to continue to enjoy lower prices and better living? Or do they want to break up A&P and pay higher prices, and have lower living standards?

What do you want?

Why Destroy A&P?

This suit was brought under the anti-trust laws. These are good laws. They were passed about fifty years ago to prevent any company, or any group of companies, from getting a monopoly in a field and then raising prices to the public.

A&P has never done any of these things.

Nobody has ever shown that we have anything even approaching a monopoly of the food business anywhere. As every housewife knows, the retail grocery business is the most competitive in the country and we do only a small part of it.

Nobody has ever said we charged too high prices — just the opposite. This whole attack rises out of the fact that we sell good food too cheap. We would not have had any of this trouble if, instead of lowering prices, we had raised them and pocketed the difference.

Nobody has ever said that our profit rate was too high. During the past five years our net profit, after taxes, has averaged about 1½¢ on every dollar of sales, which is less than almost any other business you can think of.

The American people have shown that they like our low-price policy by coming to our stores to do their shopping. If A&P is big, it is because the American people, by their patronage, have made it big.

Obviously, it is the theory of the anti-trust lawyers that the people have no right to patronize a company, if their patronage will make that company grow; and that any big business must be destroyed simply because it is big, and even if the public gets hurt in the process.

Do You Want Higher Prices?

There is much more involved in this case than the future of A&P. The entire American system of efficient, low-cost, low-profit distribution which we pioneered, will face destruction and the public will suffer.

A&P was the first chain store in this country. For more than ninety years we have tried to build a sound business on the simple formula the founder gave us: "Give the people the most good food you can for their money." Year after year we have tried to do a better job, make our business more efficient, and pass the savings on to the consumer in the form of lower prices.

Our efforts along these lines have led other grocers to keep their costs and profits down.

In the old days before A&P, food that cost the grocer 50¢, often sold as high as $1.00 at retail.

Today, food that costs the grocer 50¢ generally sells to the public at less than 60¢.

The methods we pioneered have been adopted not only by other grocers, but by merchants in other lines. There are today literally hundreds of chain stores, voluntary groups and individual merchants operating with the same methods and in the same pattern here under attack.

If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in destroying A&P, the way will be clear for the destruction of every other efficient large-scale distributor.

Who Will Be Hurt?

There has never been any question in our mind that it is good business and good citizenship to sell good food as cheaply as possible. As Fortune Magazine said about A&P some time ago, "It is firmly attached to the one great principle — the selling of more for less — that has made the desert bloom and the nation wax great."

We sincerely believe that we have helped the American people eat better and live better.

We believe that the hundreds of thousands of farmers and manufacturers who have voluntarily sought our business have profited by our fast, low-cost distribution of their products.

We know that our 110,000 loyal employees enjoy today, as they always have, the highest wages, shortest hours and best working conditions generally prevailing in the retail food industry; and that these men and women have found in A&P good opportunities for security and progress.

We know that thousands of businessmen — the landlords who rent us our stores, the haulers who operate our trucks, the people who supply us with goods and services — have a big stake in our operations.

Obviously, all these people will suffer if this company is put out of business.

What Shall We Do?

We admit that the interests of the owners of A&P are of little importance.

Frankly, they could make an enormous amount of money by breaking up A&P, as the anti-trust lawyers wish, and selling off the parts.

But is this what the American people want? Do they agree with the anti-trust lawyers that our food prices are too low, and that we should be put out of the picture so other grocers can charge more?

Frankly, if this were the case, we would not want to continue in business.

But we seriously doubt that this is the case. Twelve years ago, an effort was made to tax this company and other chain stores out of business. The public rallied to our support. They said they liked our quality foods and our low prices. As a result of their opposition, the tax was defeated.

Now we are faced with this new attack through the courts. We are faced with the heavy costs and all the trouble that lawsuits involve.

But we believe this attack is a threat to millions of consumers who rely on us for quality foods at low prices; to farmers who rely on us for fast, low-cost distribution of their products; and to our loyal employees.

We feel that it is our responsibility to all these people to defend, by every legitimate means, this company and the low-price policy on which it was built.

New M-H "Super"-Self-Propelled Combines At Pedersen Bros.

Twelve foot "Super 26" is "Biggest-Capacity Combine on wheels". The first shipment of the new "Super" Series Self-Propelled Combines arrived today from the Massey-Harris factory consigned Pedersen Bros., Impl., Co., dealers for this area. According to Mr. Pedersen, the "Super 27" Self-Propelled, 16 foot machine, and the 12 foot "Super 26" represent the culmination of 10 years experience in Self-Propelled Combine designing and manufacturing, incorporating such advancements in engineering as Balanced Separation; Simplicity of Access; Balance and Stability; and Multiple (24) Speed Drive. These new features place the 16 foot "Super 27" Combine in an unchallenged place of leadership as the biggest-capacity combine on wheels, yet it's unique frame design and balanced construction have resulted in strength and stability without adding cumbersome weight, thus allowing substantial fuel economy. The "Super 26" is identical in design and performance differing only in size, Mr. Pedersen explained.

Balance Separation

Full control of the straw from cutter bar to discharge after leaving the straw walkers, is the principal advantage built into these combines following a decade of painstaking research and experimentation. With table, cylinder, straw walkers and shoes all in balance and working as a coordinated unit, the full cut of the sickle bar is carried through the machine in an open, airy ribbon, kept constantly on the move, yet never crowded by the straw behind it or slowed up by the straw ahead. Thus with Balanced Separation farmers save all the grain they cut. Best demonstration of this constant, even movement of straw through the machine is seen in the ribbon-like manner the straw is discharged and laid on the ground like a blanket, without the usual bunches or piles of straw as are found behind conventional combines.

Leaving the rasp bar cylinder, where much of the separation takes place, a roller-type beater rolls the straw immediately onto the walkers, with a combing action, holding it to the walkers by means of a flexible apron. Here at the front end of the walkers, the straw continues on the move with separation taking place over every square inch of walker area. Finger-type agitators on the walkers keep the ribbon of straw open and fluffy as it is moved toward the rear. A directional fan system splits the wind to both upper and lower chaffer shoes at pre-determined velocity, simply adjusted to meet the particular requirements of the crop condition. Tailings are delivered directly back to the cleaner sieve for final separation.

Simple, Accessible

First impression farmers get when examining these two new Combines is the surprising simplicity throughout, and the main provisions for easy adjustment and maintenance. The frame itself is of simple design, but most apparent is the minimum of gears, chains and drive mechanism.

ism. Greatly improved over previous models and other Self-Propelled Combines, the new Massey-Harris is an engineering achievement in its simplicity. Daily maintenance and necessary adjustments are accomplished with time-saving efficiency. The large-capacity gasoline tank is located at elbow height for easy filling at the left rear side of the Combine. A comfortable seat on the operator's platform provides a full view of the table, and the field ahead of the Combine. For occasional operation from a standing position, the seat is hinged to flip back out of the way. Automotive-type dash is located to the right of the platform with temperature gauge, oil gauge, fuel gauge and ammeter in full view. Steering wheel, clutch and brake pedals, speed lever, and electric table lift toggle are all conveniently located complete command of the combines for comfortable, effortless driving, operation at all times. A lift-out inspection door is provided above the cylinder, another door makes the engine radiator easily accessible; main wheel drive chains may be tightened or loosened independently of each other with no danger of misalignment—and can be done in a matter of minutes without jacking up the Combine or removing the wheels. Engine is mounted on channel rails beneath the platform for convenience in servicing. Tank capacity has been increased to 60 bushels with a large diameter auger speeding up unloading to 90 seconds.

Balance and Stability

Streamlined styling, low center of gravity, correct balance of heavy units add stability and balance to these harvest monsters making the new Massey-Harris an efficient, safe machine even for hillside operation. Grain tank is mounted at the left to offset the engine weight on the right side. Whether the grain tank is empty or full, the Combine is in good balance, with perfect balance in effect when the tank is half to three-fourths full. The position of the large drive wheels, in relation to the rear wheels, carries the frame on an even keel with just enough weight on the rear wheels to hold the Combine down in rough terrain for easy maneuverability and precision steering.

Multiple Speed Drive

Two speed ranges with 12 variables in each range give the operator 24 selections of forward speed by simply moving the speed lever forward or back. Thus any speed from a crawl to 7.6 miles per hour is provided with only one change of gear. Mr. Pedersen pointed out that most farmers will start the day in either high or low range (dependent upon crop and ground conditions) and remain in that gear all day long with 12 different speeds at their finger tips. Amazingly simple in its operation and fully dependable in performance, this new Multiple Speed Drive is another of the many exclusive Massey-Harris features incorporated in these new "Super" Combines, Mr. Pedersen added. Precision-machined pulleys and recently developed long-life belts make the new Multiple Speed Drive the most practical, yet simplest device ever built into a Combine. Constant speed is assured, without speed-up on down grades or slowing up when climbing hillsides.

Camel, "a Sullen Beast"

It has a split upper lip, popeyes, loosely hung jaws, and a stupid sad expression on its too-small face. Its temper is sad and sullen, interrupted by fits of anger and rage. The camel's personal habits are so bad that it has few friends, even among other camels."

NEW MASSEY-HARRIS "26" AND "27" SELF-PROPELLED ARE THE EASIEST COMBINES TO OPERATE

★ Ease of operation... convenience... safety... are just natural results of the common sense combine construction of the new Massey-Harris Self-Propelleds.

Take that big, easy to fill gas tank. It's just elbow height and holds enough to take you over many an acre without refilling.

The big grain tank is another important advantage. Only a matter of seconds to unload the 45 bushel tank on the "26"; or the 60 bushel tank on the "27."

Easily reached controls... you bet! Everything is right there before you; threshing controls, speed, starter, electric table lift, brake and clutch pedals, all are within easy reach. Convenient inspection panels provide fast, sure check up and lubrication on vital parts. You always have dependable operation.

Extra Large traction wheels take the bounce and jar out of rough fields... take a good firm grip in soft ground conditions for faster harvesting.

And the electric table lift lets you take as much or as little straw as you like. You can skim the ground or take the heads. Special springs cushion lowering and prevent damage or digging in.

With the "26" or "27" on your farm you get more production... easier, faster operation because you cover more acres in less time, more profitably.

Miss Marian Schulz became the bride of William Goewey yesterday at the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. Charles J. Heinzelman at Cross Lake.

The bride wore traditional white satin trimmed with rose point lace. Her Juliet cap and flowing veil were of the same lace. It was an attractive picture to see Miss Schulz walk down the winding staircase carrying her bouquet of butterfly and white orchids to meet her father, who escorted her to the altar in front of the fire place. The flower arrangements throughout the house gave a perfect setting for this double ring ceremony performed by Rev. G. Richard Tuttle. Mrs. William Lemke, the matron of honor, wore a seafoam green satin dress and carried a spray bouquet of mums. Mr. William Lemke was best man.

A wedding breakfast at the home followed the ceremony. The young couple left for their wedding trip in the West, following the breakfast.

The former Miss Schulz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schulz, of Chicago, is a graduate of Kemper Hall in Kenosha, Wisconsin. Mr. Goewey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Goewey, Elmhurst, served in the armed forces in the European theater during the war.

Library Notes

History at its best is given us in "Our English Heritage" by Gerald W. Johnson. In book one, he describes the English peoples who came to our shores to push back the wilderness and settle a new world, the starvelings and beggars, the sturdy poor, the "born to rule" gentlemen of quality. Later chapters outline our heritage from English institutions, starting with the language and permeating our legal code, religions, art, science and philosophy. "Our English Heritage" is a notable addition to the Peoples of America series, especially since many aspects of English influence on our way of life are so fundamental that they are overlooked.

"Our English Heritage" was presented to the Antioch Township Library in memory of the late Mayor George B. Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runyard and Mrs. Harold Mickel returned recently from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Coan and family at Noble, Missouri.

75 Attend M Y F Kickoff Dinner at Methodist Church

Banquet tables were filled to overflowing by 75 young people at The Methodist Church in Antioch Tuesday evening, Sept. 13. The occasion was the fall kick-off banquet heralding the opening of fall activities.

The Rev. Perry Saito, of Chicago, was the speaker for the banquet. He told the young people that the Kingdom of God was not a vague idea for some future time, but that it was already here waiting only for them to make it a reality in their relationships toward others and toward God. Mr. Saito also led the group in community singing and Mrs. Saito sang two special solos.

The program also included a piano solo, "The Holy City" by Bill Deering and a comedy skit by Bud Cardiff, George Reardon and Bob Wilton, and an impromptu skit by Jack Mahoney and David Deering. Bob Kufalk acted as master of ceremonies, introducing the various parts of the program.

Sixteen members of the official board served the dinner and did the kitchen work. The 27 members of the board had provided the food for the banquet. The ice cream for the dessert was donated by Ted's Sweet Shop.

MON. EVE. TAVERN LEAGUE

Len Fischer, Secy.
L. Koppen led the way for a three game win for Thompson's Tavern Monday night when he hit 550 on games of 182, 166 and 202. Ken Hart also helped mightily by slipping in a 240 game. The losers, Hans and Mables, started H. Pape's 531 series. Ed Sorenson showed mid-season form by scoring a 580 series to help his team sweep three from Kempf's. The Antioch Recreation took two from Bud's Tavern, as did Pagel's from Halings. Strametz and Ed Walters shot 552 and 516 for Halings and V. Davidson and Pagels hit 495 and 508 for the winners. Despite Ray Horan's 547, Louie and Eds were swamped for three losses by Ehrhardt's. Larry Joerndt was high for the winners with 543. Club Villa took the odd game from Pikeville with Bill Keulman high for the Lake Villa team with 574 and Les Nelson high for the Pikeville team with 522.

Women's Handicap League (Tues.)

E. Cook, Secy.
Slide Inn took three games from The Art Corner. Louise Fernandez, on the winning team, shot two games of 155 and had a 450 series. Pagels took two from Regal China. Ehrhardt's made a clean sweep over Salem, as Seyfarth's did over Our Country Club. Marge Walsh led the league with a nice 487 on games of 156, 155, 176. The Antioch News took two from Mehrings, and The Sponge did the same for Bud's Tavern.

WED. NIGHT BUSINESSMEN'S

J. J. Smith, Secy.

Schneider Bros. took two from Hank's Horseshoe Bar. Bernie Schneider was high with 501. F. Hartwell had 493 for high for Hanks. Golden Glo Dairy took the odd game from Lake Villa Pharmacy. Tommy Kosh had a 537 series for the Dairy and Joe Voller had 475 high for the Pharmacy. Channel Lake Pavilion took 3 games from VFW. Atwood of the winners had a 513 series and T. Sciacero had 471 series for the losers. American Legion swept the series from the Holy Name with a series of 2470, 2nd high for the night. B. Johnson had a 535 series for the Legion. Rogers was high for the Holy Name with 495.

THURS. NIGHT BUSINESSMENS

Bruce Dagaard, Secy.
Last Thursday was a disastrous night for three teams of the league with Johnsons, Herrons and Stanleys each taking three games from Antioch Mill, Servicenter and the Lions club. The other six teams of the league split in two to one fashion with Seyfarth's, Keulman Bros. and Carey Electric beating Regal China, Salem, and Millburn. Carl Gibson rolled the only outstanding game of 245.

LADIES MAJOR LEAGUE (FRI.)

Dorothy Ferris, Secy.
The Ladies Major League started Friday evening with Erna Courtney rolling 138-202-163 for a 503 series to help Reeves Drug Store take three games from The Stork. ## New Parochial School of St. Peter's Parish

More than 200 pupils are enrolled in the new St. Peter's parochial school that was opened Monday with a staff of five teachers including a music instructor. The number will be increased slightly after several who have been will enroll. There are four main classes of 50 pupils at present. The building accommodates eight grades and has many of the main features of the modern school. It also has living quarters for the sisters. (Picture courtesy Waukegan News-Sun)

Mrs. Fred W. Oschmann Writes of Tour Abroad; Enjoys Sights and Fine Entertainment in England

Mrs. Fred Oschmann, of Antioch, has written home from England where she and her husband are participating in the Illinois Rural Cultural Arts tour. The tour is led by Dr. David E. Lindstrom, rural sociologist in the Illinois College of Agriculture, and during the seven weeks of travel the 52 persons making up the Illinois group will visit eight European countries, England, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Germany, Holland, Belgium, and France, plus a few days in Canada on the return trip. The purpose of the trip is to gain a better understanding of farm folks in other countries.

Wrote Mrs. Oschmann: "Ashridge House, Berkhamstead, England, August 31, 1949. On Saturday morning, August 27, the Marine Tiger docked at Southampton. After the immigration officers examined our passports we disembarked and left by train for London. There we enjoyed a sight seeing tour of London before having lunch at the Kenilworth Hotel. After lunch we left for Ashridge College 35 miles from London. It was once the home of Queen Elizabeth and one of the most beautiful places I have ever seen. It has both mansion and grounds which cover many miles. Sunday afternoon John Findlay, a Scottish farmer, talked on farming. In the afternoon we visited Manor House—a mansion built in 1536. Miss Talbot the present owner served us tea and showed us the mansion.

On Monday we visited Silsoe, Bedfordshire where we visited the National Institute of Agricultural Engineering, formerly known as West Park, a mansion built by Baron De Grey, who came to England with William the Conqueror. The building was built in 1836. Here we were told about agriculture in England. On the way home we enjoyed seeing Dinstable Downs, Glider Club. Several planes were in the air. On Tuesday Mr. Gibbons showed us the dairy farm owned by Sir William Cooper. Mrs. Gibbons served us a most delicious tea. Wednesday evening the village of Little Gaddesden is planning a party for our group. We leave for Shrewsbury,

State Patrolman Speaks Before P. T. A. on Safety

The hazards of the highway and how they are being corrected were emphasized by Sgt. Joseph Simon of the state highway patrol in his talk before the Antioch grade school Parent Teacher association Monday evening.

The talk was followed by an illustrative movie, "Precious Cargo." Mrs. Donald Stowe presided at the meeting which was the first for the year by the organization. Mrs. George Garland was elected secretary to replace Mrs. Yates, and Mrs. B. C. Thompson will serve as historian for the coming year.

Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Louis Jarnigo. The meeting was well attended by both fathers and mothers and it is anticipated that the future meetings will bring out those who could not attend this one.

"Silent Poetry" In ancient Greece painting was termed "silent poetry."

Waukegan Radio Station WKRS to Begin Standard Band at 1220 KC Sunday

Radio Station WKRS in Waukegan will begin operating on the standard broadcast band on Sunday, September 25, supplementing its FM broadcasts.

The radio station for the remainder of this month will sign on both AM and FM on Sunday at 8 a. m. and on weekdays at 7 a. m. Sign off time will be 6 p. m. for AM programs during the month of September and 10 p. m. for programs aired on FM.

Among the WKRS programs of special interest to Lake County radio listeners will be the all local news broadcasts at 12:15, broadcasts of all Waukegan Bulldog and Merchants' football games which are played in the afternoon (both at home and away), and the very popular Polka Hour from 5 to 6 p. m.

Frank H. Just, owner of the radio station and publisher of the Waukegan News-Sun, says that the addition of AM facilities was made possible so that WKRS could provide more complete service in Lake County by reaching those families who do not own FM sets.

Sunshine Cities

American vacationists will be interested to know that Denver, the colorful capital of Colorado, had more sunshine—and more snow—during 1948 than any of 10 "typical" United States cities listed in the 1949 edition of the Britannica Book of the Year. The book shows Denver enjoyed 3,331 sunlit hours during the past year, more than any of the other 18 cities. Second and third sunny cities also were in the West with longitudes comparable to that of Denver.

Tender Steaks

Broiling is the best method of preparing the tender steaks. The meat should be placed in the broiler so the surface of one-inch steaks is about two inches from the heat, and two-inch steaks about three inches from the heat.

Won Their Way

There have been three vice-presidents who have been elected president in their own right after having succeeded to the presidency—Theodore Roosevelt, Calvin Coolidge and Harry S. Truman.

Armed Forces

During the war the government employed 11 million in the armed forces.

This Week's Bible Verse—

"Set thine house in order"—Isaiah 38:1.
Let all things be done recently and in order.—Corinthians 14:40

A Michigan congressman quoted the above to his fellow members in congress for the improvement of conduct in the "house."

A. Lincoln—

Probably you have never read Lincoln's first political speech, when he ran for the Illinois legislature. It was a short speech, but all except three of the 208 voters in his home town of Salem cast their ballots for him. Here is the entire speech: "Fellow citizens, I presume you all know who I am. I am humble Abraham Lincoln. My politics are short and sweet like the old woman's dance. I am in favor of a national bank. I am in favor of the internal revenue improvement system and a high protective tariff. Those are my sentiments and political principles. If elected, I shall be thankful; if not, it will all be the same."

Statistics—

The average length of life was only 35½ years about the time of the American Revolution. By the middle of the 19th century it had climbed close to 42 years. Today the average length of life in America is 63.7 years for men and 68.6 for women. If a man succeeds in getting past 65, he has a good chance of living about 20 years more.

This Week's Recipes and Tips

CHICKEN FAT—Many fats and drippings make an acceptable shortening for biscuits, muffins, spice and molasses cakes and cookies. Chicken fat with its bland flavor and soft texture, can be used in many ways for all types of cooking. It is especially good in sauces and biscuits or dumplings.

ONIONS WILL SLICE

NEATLY IF CUT FROM STEM END
The concentric rings in this bulbous vegetable are firmly attached at the root end and so by starting at the stem end, the rings remain anchored or stable and this facilitates cutting evenly.

APPLE FREEZING POINT—Apples freeze at 24 to 26 degrees. Stored at 28 to 30 degrees they will hold their goodness for a year or longer.

Quips—

American officials got this statement from a Chinese guerrilla girl: "When Japanese came, I pretend to be very nice. Every day take new husband, every night cut off his head."—Tales of Hoffman.

The ostrich can knock a man unconscious with one blow from its powerful feet.

Any girl can be pretty as a picture if she has a nice frame.

A wealthy man, intent on matrimony, told his friend one day that he was sixty years old, and asked: "Would it be better if I told a young lady whom I'd like to marry that I'm only fifty?" "I'll be perfectly frank with you," his friend replied. "Your chances would be better if you tell her you were seventy-five."—Wall Street Journal.

"Well, what excuse have you got for coming home at this hour of the night?" "Well, my dear, I was playing golf with some friends and..." "What? At 2 a. m.?" "Sure. We were using the night clubs."

Quizzer—

Can you form an English word out of 20 matches—without breaking or bending a match. Answer next week. Last week's answer: What president of U. S. weighed less than 100 lbs.? James Madison was 5 ft. 4 in. in height, and weighed less than 100 pounds. See you next week.

New Device Halves Time, Cost to Turn Out Pilots

NEW YORK—By means of a $250,000 electronic device called a Dehmel flight simulator, pilots can learn to fly the new double-deck $1,500,000 strato-cruisers in less than half the usual time and at half the usual cost.

This disclosure was made by Capt. Sam Miller, chief pilot for Pan American Airways' Atlantic division, in reviewing his first six months' experience with the device.

Veteran pilots who ordinarily would have to spend ten and a half hours in the air to learn to fly the new double-deck $1,500,000 strato-cruisers now spend less than five hours in actual flights.

The device makes pilots experts in handling problems they are never likely to meet in years of actual flying.

Animals Subject to Two Ailments Common to Humans

LINCOLN, NEB.—Humans never suffer from diseases like rabies, hoof-and-mouth disease or strangles—common only to animals, but animals are subject to at least two diseases generally believed to be common only to humans—"hives" and hay fever.

The American Foundation for Animal Health reports the same types of antihistamine medicines often successful in treating these conditions in man now are being used with pets and farm animals. Upon coming in contact with or eating certain plants, the foundation said, horses and cattle commonly founder, or develop nettle rash or a severe form of sore mouth.

The foundation warned use of antihistamine drugs must be carefully supervised. Improper dosage may result in death, it said.

Blood Test for Hogs
The blood test is a means of detecting brucellosis in a herd of swine, but it is not reliable when applied to individual hogs.

Salad

Peanut butter added to salad dressing gives a different touch to similar salads.

Luminous Paint

Luminous paints, which glow for approximately six to eight hours after they have been "charged" by natural or artificial light, are easily applied. They come in several different tints, such as light green, pale yellow and oyster white. Brushed onto furniture which has been enameled in a similar color, they can be visually unobtrusive during daylight hours, if you so wish.

For That Dented Fender

As soon as a batch of automobile lacquer is approved, a large part of it is drawn off into big containers for shipment to the great assembly lines. A portion of every batch, however, is put into small containers for use in the nation's refinishing shops.

Testing Dairy Cattle

Brucellosis testing of dairy cattle in the future may be done by checking the milk rather than the cow. This method, known as the ring test, is now being studied by the U.S. department of agriculture.

Shrinking Kangaroo

Kangaroos have shrunk. The largest living specimens in Australia now range from seven to eight feet in height, whereas their prehistoric ancestors were giants of from 12 to 20 feet.

Guess who's losing sleep over this one?

YOUR KEY TO GREATER VALUE

FOR years, folks have talked about the "low-priced three" in the car business.

For a generation these have been the same three cars, unchallenged for position simply because they were lowest priced.

But take a look at the beauty pictured here
and ask yourself:

How would you like to sell against it, with its wealth of Buick features?

How would you like to compete with it when it wears a price tag any new-car buyer can reach, gives you straight-eight performance for less than many sixes?

Truth is, this one sets a lot of standards that are going to be hard to match.

This styling is certainly something to start other designers tossing in their sleep.

This handy size—a dream in traffic, yet generous in interior room—is a "must" for cars yet to come.

The lift of high-pressure Fireball power—
the level-going comfort of the Buick ride
—the luxury of Dynaflo Drive, here optional at modest extra cost—all these are wanted things others just can't overlook.

So why not do the obvious thing and go see the car that's causing sleepless nights in Detroit?

Study its smartness, test its room and comfort, try its handling, note the precise figures of its delivered prices.

You can do all that on a single trip to your Buick dealer's—and make your selection of a wide choice of equipment and colors at the same time.

ROCKET TO MOON

Germans Say It's Possible

FRANKFURT — German atom scientists doing research on moon rockets say they have completed basic theoretical calculations for a manned rocket which they want to shoot to the moon.

"All we need now is the chance —and the financial aid—to put our theories into practice," said rocket-specialist Dr. Heinz Garmann. Garmann's articles predicting successful efforts to reach the moon by space ship are popular in Germany.

Worked At White Sands
Because of his outstanding qualifications, U.S. authorities called on Garmann for assistance in 1947. They took him up to the White Sands proving ground in New Mexico where, for six months, he helped American rocket designers.

Atom and rocket scientists in postwar Germany are directing most of their efforts to catch up with American and British developments in this field.

Since the Allies have banned any kind of German war production, the scientists' activities now are restricted to elaborating theories and exchanging ideas with their foreign colleagues.

Form Research Society
To centralize their efforts, German scientists got together and formed the Interplanetary Society for Space Research, with Garmann as chairman. These researchers admit they enthusiastically cherish the hope that "sooner or later German science will be leading again in the field of rocket design."

For the time being, and probably for years to come, they see their position as being "at the very tail end of the world's atomic and rocket research."

Nevertheless, one of them said, "I am of the firm conviction that before the end of my days I shall have viewed the moon from the back."

Claim 'Startling Inventions'
His German colleagues claim Garmann recently was able to prove to some American rocket designers a fundamental error in their calculations for a space rocket.

"A steady flow of information is crossing the ocean both ways between Germany and American scientists, but we are not so stupid as to disclose our top-secret theories just for nothing," a German informant said.

Although they have "startling inventions" in their files, the Germans insist they will withhold them until the Allies give them world-wide patent protection.

Woman Marks 104th Year; Still Enjoys a Good Steak

NEWARK, N. J. — Mrs. Rose Gelb, great-grandmother of 11 children, has begun her 105th year as a citizen of this world.

At a picnic celebrating her birthday, the 104-year-old woman was honored by 10 members of her family. Steak broiled over an open fire in the backyard of the summer home of her son, Edward, in Long Beach was the piece de resistance. Mrs. Gelb ate heartily, as usual.

She said she likes "almost any kind of food" and is especially fond of meat.

Her birthday cake bore no candles.

"One way to keep young," she declared, "is to pay little attention to your age. Don't isolate yourself —particularly mentally."

Mrs. Gelb reads the newspapers regularly. She wears no glasses and her hearing is "pretty good for my age."

"Keeping up with what goes on in the world is another way of keeping young," she commented.

Besides her son, Mrs. Gelb has thirteen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. Her husband, Levi, died 60 years ago.

Grandmother, 62, Enjoys Motorcycle Trip to Wedding

McCOOK, NEB. — At 62, Mrs. A. H. Muffley thinks nothing of making a trip through three states with her husband, aged 63, aboard a motorcycle-built-for-two.

At least, she found that mode of travel "very enjoyable" when her husband brought her here on the back of his motorcycle all the way from Galesburg, Ill., to attend the marriage of their granddaughter.

"It wasn't too tiring," she said. On the trip she sat on a specially-built seat directly behind her husband. The seat was cushioned with four inches of sponge rubber.

'Nuts' Is OK in Battle, But Not in Parliament!

LONDON — It's all right to reply to an enemy's demand for surrender with the now classic "Nuts!" —but if you're a member of Parliament you can't say that another member is "nuts" without formally apologizing.

This ruling was made after Labor Member Ernest Thurtle objected because Communist Member William Gallacher said, "He is nuts," and the words were printed in the official record of proceedings.

Theory of Evolution

A new theory of systematic evolution refutes the assumption by some scientists that a type of animal, such as the dinosaur, was wiped out suddenly by an earthquake, volcano, glacier, or other catastrophic event. The history of life which can be read from the rocks shows that any type now extinct declined gradually without marked influence from its environment.

Active Volcanoes

Volcanologists count about 500 active volcano craters in the world —active by virtue of eruptions within recorded history. Three-fourths or more of the total are in the Pacific half of the globe. About 40 are under the American flag in Alaska and Hawaii. In the United States proper, Mount Lassen, California, is the only one.

Coconut Palm

Date and coconut palms are sources of food, and houses in tropical countries are thatched with fan-like palm leaves. By-products of the coconut palm include oil for soap and margarine. Sago starch is made from roots of the palm tree, of which there are more than 1,500 varieties.

Clean Milk

Attention to small details aids in the production of clean milk. Rinse milk and cream cans before placing the products in them. Keep lids on cans after they are filled to prevent dust from falling into the milk. A parchment placed under the lids will keep out dust while the cans are in transit.

State Has Record Corn Crop Favorable weather is putting the finishing touches on the largest of all Illinois corn crops. State and federal departments of agriculture now predict a yield averaging 62 bushels per acre for a total production of 559 million bushels. This, if attained, will break all records, topping last year's champion crop by 9 million bushels, and ranking 40 per cent above the ten-year average.

Holstein Herd of Armour Farm Has High Test Yield One Cow Giving 607 lbs.

During the last test year, the 19 cow herd of registered Holstein-Friesians owned by Laurence Armour, Antioch, produced an average of 445 pounds of butterfat and 12,775 pounds of milk made in the official Herd Improvement Registry program of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Milking was done three times daily for four of them and the remainder of them were milked twice daily, and testing was supervised by the University of Illinois in connection with the national Holstein headquarters.

Harnell Aaggie Ormsby Pride, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by Mr. Armour, has completed a 320-day production test of 607 pounds of butterfat and 16,552 pounds of milk made in Herd Improvement Registry.

This cow was milked twice daily and was 6 years 6 months when she began her test period.
